Cherry,

Ellen,

Ellen I have enjoyed knowing you for the past year, and have loved it so. I know some people give you a hard time, but I will not do so. I have made a poem up about you and Tammy O'neill so here goes.

for whom the Bell tolls

CLAIBORNE CAWTHORNE

... Any man's death diminishes me,
because I am involved in Mankind;
And therefore never send to know
for whom the bell tolls;
it tolls for thee.

— John Donne —

Good luck,

Class Poem

We set our course on the sea of life,
Twelve years ago, 'mid joy and strife.
We worked to build through all the years,
Fruits of maturity from happiness and fears,

We set the sail, our flags unfurled,
As we faced the trials that fate had hurled.
We strove with Zeal's ambition high,
As the twelve years went sailing by.

As we prepare to embark anew,
On another venture I know that you
Will chart your course well prepared,
By the years at Bessemer we have shared.

Class Prayer

Our most merciful heavenly Father, Thou hast brought us safely through these twelve years. Thou hast led us to the doors which, when open, will lead to our lives as responsible Christians. God, show each of us the right door, the right life, the right way. Open our eyes that we may see. Take our hands and lead us in all that we do. We sin and a prayer brings forgiveness. We stumble into walls of trouble and trial, and faith brings comfort. Take us now, O God, and give us courage and patience, wisdom and understanding. Give us unselfish hearts, gentle hands, and loving words. Help us that we may seek to follow Thee all the days of our lives. Amen

Class history

It is still hard to realize that our days at Bessemer High School are now coming to an end. We have many memories that we will take with us.

We shall never forget that first year of school. At that time we had no idea we were forming the basis for our future education. We were all amazed with the little cement fish pond in Miss Fryar's classroom and were thrilled when she let us feed the playful goldfish. There is one other thing we will remember, that was the old record player that had to be cranked ever so often so we could hear the music to which we hopped, skipped, and jumped.

In the next few years we learned many new things. We could now write instead of print, and we learned how to share and to co-operate with others. We were allowed to take educational trips and we enjoyed every minute of each one.

In the eighth grade we went to Raleigh. This was a very interesting trip and many in our class saw the state capital for the first time. During these years we gained many new experiences. We always were a class prepared to try something new and as each opportunity availed itself we made use of it. We were all eager to enter high school, and our eighth grade teachers answered question after question concerning high school and advised us as to which subjects we should take.

Bright and early we reported to the cafeteria on that September morning. We were in high school, and we now had the privilege of selecting our subjects. The year passed quickly. One of the highlights of our freshman year was the trip to Linville Caverns planned by our homeroom teachers. Mrs. Allen, Miss Brown, and Mr. Duffy, who was an exchange teacher from Australia.

Our sophomore year was a year of hard work and getting to know one another better. Our childish prejudices and dislikes of other people were dropped and the class really began working together for the betterment of our school. We understood our teachers better and became real friends with them. Mr. Burnett, Mr. Omohundro, and Mr. Pennington were our homeroom teachers for that year.

As juniors we found ourselves looking forward to the arrival of our class rings. Under the leadership of Miss Hemphill, Mrs. Arvin, and Mrs. Steele, we spent many hours planning our Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme we selected and used in decorating the ballroom of the Star-mountain Forest Country Club was "Moonlight and Roses." The banquet was a success. Once during the first semester and once during the last semester our grandmothers gave us a hamburger fry. Our homeroom teachers prepared a surprise Christmas party for us, and it was enjoyed and appreciated by everyone.

As seniors we are eagerly awaiting our trip to New York and Washington, D.C. We are looking forward to being entertained by the Junior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. These memories, and many more, we will always have of Bessemer High School; and we can never say "Thank you" enough to the faculty. They have been more than just a faculty, they have been friends to whom we could take our problems. Under the guidance of Miss Guill and Mr. Hunter, we are approaching our time of graduation. When we receive our diplomas, we shall realize that it will not be the end of our education, but rather it is only the beginning; and we look into the future with great hope.

THE AUTO DRIVERS' TRAINING COURSE

PAYS

10%

Many people do not realize it, but completing the high school drivers' training course PAYS in many ways.

1. It enables all boys under age 25 to receive a 10% discount on their insurance premium.
2. It enables the graduates to have a better knowledge of the "safety rules of the road" than do 70% of their elders who have been driving for years.
3. It instills sportsmanship, courtesy and skill into driving together with a wholesome knowledge of and respect for the law.

The North Carolina General Assembly in 1957 passed a law further providing for and financing driver training courses in our high schools.

For the year 1958 only seven of the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia were awarded achievement awards in operating drivers' training courses. Only four states were awarded progress awards in the same field.

North Carolina, Delaware and Utah were the only states to win both achievement and progress awards. Perhaps that is one good reason why Delaware and North Carolina have the lowest average auto liability and property damage premium rates of any states east of the Mississippi.

Let's continue to encourage the drivers' training course. It not only represents a premium savings but also represents a far more important savings in property and lives.

Bring your insurance problems home to the top floor of the South-eastern Building. We're happy to help you.

Normally you think in terms of hundreds of dollars when you think of luxury. But, not so with the most worthwhile luxury of them all—life insurance.

Life insurance costs little yet gives unlimited benefits at a cost of only a few cents a day. Retirement income, money for your family, mortgage retirement or an educational program for your children are just a few of the many benefits provided by life insurance.

Call or write the Southern Life representative of your choice today. He will gladly tell you of the many luxuries provided by life insurance. There's no obligation of course.

Ellen,

I have only known you about three years but believe me that's long enough. In these three years we have had some good times, and like everyone else, we've had our fusses.

I remember that Sunday night we had that big fuss over "you know who" and brother I'm sure you remember it.

Although we have had some good times together in the past. In the following years I hope we will have many more.

You are one of the nicest, sweetest, and prettiest girls I know and have ever known. God be with you always because I won't.

Good luck with all the boys. Especially Tommy O'Ferrell and Tommy Fields. I hope you get the one you want. Hope to see you next year. (In the fall of B.H.S.)

Ellen,

Last year I did not know you to well but this year you are one of my best friends. I hope it last and last forever. We have had a lot of fun together. When we go to the stores and other places we would always have fun in everything we would do. Do you remember when Kyle and you and me went to the fair that was the best time I have ever had. I hope we will get to go next year together. I got lost about three times trying to find you and Kyle. The time I was with you, we were going to go to Sunday School but we never did. The time you spent the night with my boy, did we have fun. Mother and Daddy went to Durham and I stayed home. Connie came over and we had fun. At first we did not have much to do. We cooked our own lunch. It was a little food. What we have done together it was all fun. Of course we had fusses it was mostly me. We would always make up. They would last a long time. May God be with you always because I care for you. You are the cutest and sweetest little friend. You have very nice inside manners. I hope you are the best. I hope you are the best.
